Digital Camera Workshop on May 29th at the JCCCNC “How to use your digital camera”

SAN FRANCISCO (May 21, 2009) - The Japanese Cultural and Community Center of Northern California (JCCCNC) is hosting a workshop on Digital Camera Basics on Friday, May 29, 2009 from 1:00 – 3:30 p.m. at the JCCCNC, 1840 Sutter Street, San Francisco.

This 2 ½ hour workshop will be led by Katie Burroughs and will teach you all you need to know about your digital camera.

Whether you have had your camera for several years, just bought a new one or thinking about purchasing a new one, this workshop is for you.

Bring your camera in and learn:

- What all of the buttons on your camera are for and what they do
- When you should be using your flash
- How to download photos to your computer
- How to delete photos from your camera
- How to use other functions and modes

Photos are a wonderful gift to share with friends and family and in this introductory workshop, you'll learn all the tools you need to take great photos and download to easily share them with others. You are encouraged to bring in your own camera and ask questions specific to your needs and camera's model.

This workshop is $2 for JCCCNC members and $3 for non-members. Space is limited, so call today to register. For more information or to enroll in this workshop, please contact the JCCCNC at (415) 567-5505 or e-mail programsevents@jcccnc.org.
