JCCCNC Offering Beginning Ceramics for Youth

San Francisco (June 1, 2009) –

The Japanese Cultural and Community Center of Northern California (JCCCNC) is offering Beginning Ceramics for ages 5-16 years. Class will start on July 6, 2009. Learn many different techniques such as slab building, coiling and surface texture by making different objects. Every month will have a different technique and theme to work on. The instructor will be Ms. Shu-hui Yang, She welcomes individuals of all skill levels to attend as the techniques she teaches can be mastered by both beginning and advanced students.

Shu-hui Yang has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Visual Art with an emphasis in ceramics from San Francisco State University. She has taught children and adults in Taiwan and is the current teacher at the JCCCNC. She brings her joy and love for the art of ceramics.

The cost is $50 for JCCCNC Members / $65 for non-members per month.

The general public is welcomed. Space is limited, so reserve your space early! For more information on this, please call JCCCNC at 415.567.5505.
