

Friends of Glenn invite you to:

COLON CANCER IS A PAIN IN THE OSHIRI

A Japanese American Story of Living with Colon Cancer

Saturday, July 17

4:00 - 6:00 pm.

Location: JCCCNC - Nisei Community Hall (gym)
Japanese Cultural and Community Center of Northern California
1840 Sutter Street, San Francisco, CA

In 2005, Glenn was diagnosed with stage-four colon cancer. Five operations and 32 weeks of chemotherapy later, Glenn continues his fight with the disease.

The Friends of Glenn would like to invite you to a special musical documentary benefit which will include vocal performances by Colette Ikemi-Osaki and a video presentation of Glenn's story with interviews of family, friends and doctors who have provided his care.

A reception organized by the Friends of Glenn will immediately follow the program (approximately 5:30 pm).

Cost: $20 (additional contributions welcome)

Checks can be made payable to: JCCCNC

If you're not able to attend, but would like to contribute, checks can be mailed to:
Colon Cancer Awareness, c/o JCCCNC, 1840 Sutter Street, San Francisco, CA 94115

Funds raised from this benefit will be utilized for colon cancer education and awareness within the Japanese American community and to support alternative treatment methods for Glenn's ongoing battle with this disease.
