

The Nikkei Youth Cultural Heritage Program, in cooperation with the Kobe YMCA Language Program (Hyogo Prefecture, Japan), is designed for participants to gain a better understanding of their cultural heritage and discover Japan in a unique and exciting way. This program will allow participants to immerse themselves in Japanese culture through Japanese language and writing classes, by attending introductory classes in traditional Japanese art forms, enjoying late afternoon and Saturday excursions exploring different parts of the Kansai region, all while having the opportunity to use and practice their Japanese language skills on a daily basis with their homestay families.

Important Dates and Information

1. The 2010 Nikkei Youth Cultural Heritage Program is an eight-week commitment (mid May through July), participating in pre-trip cultural workshops; traveling to Kobe, Japan for a four week intensive language and homestay program; and closing with a debrief within two weeks of arrival back to the United States.
2. The primary purpose for the Nikkei Youth Cultural Heritage Program is to help Nikkei youth gain a better understanding of their ancestral and cultural background, however Japanese ancestry is not required.
3. To be eligible for the 2010 program, the applicant must be 18 years of age or older (on June 1, 2010) and have completed a minimum of one semester of college studies.
4. Applicants will be asked to choose one of the four Japanese Cultural Centers located in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle or Honolulu in which to be interviewed and (if selected) participate in pre-trip cultural training workshops and post-trip debriefing.
5. Program Cost and Details:
  - o The Nikkei Youth Cultural Heritage Program subsidized tuition cost for each participant is $3,030.00*. *Other costs not included are reduced rate air fare, domestic transportation and personal spending.
  - o Upon selection, a $1,000.00 deposit will be required to hold your spot.
  - o Partial Scholarships may be available. Please check with your Cultural Center.
6. Participants will be selected for the 2010 program based on their application, essay and interview.
7. The participant must commit to the following mandatory activities:
