Celebrate SF Giants Japanese Heritage Night with The Center

San Francisco (February 28, 2018) – Join the Japanese Cultural and Community Center of Northern California (The Center) and the Japanese American community on Monday, April 30 at 7:15 p.m. to cheer on the San Francisco Giants as they take on the Cincinnati Reds. The Giants host this annual special event to honor the deeply rooted 150-year culture of the San Francisco Japantown community, which is one of three remaining in the United States. The Giants and The Center are proud to invite you, your family and friends to the annual Japanese Heritage Night (JHN) at AT&T Park to celebrate the rich history and culture of the Japanese American community.

A ticket purchased through The Center includes a seat in the designated JCCCNC section (View Reserve 307, 310 or 311), a collectible JHN Cherry Blossom printed backpack and admission into the pre-game JHN event. A portion of ticket sale proceeds will go toward supporting The Center's over 80 ongoing programs.

Tickets are $18 for The Center members and $23 for the general public. Groups of 15 or more qualify for member rates. Seating is limited.

In addition to Japanese Heritage Night, The Center is also selling tickets for other Giants Special Events, including Star Wars Day 1, Polynesian Heritage Night, Hello Kitty Day, Bruce Lee Tribute Night and Peanuts Day. Details about pricing, giveaways and game time are available at www.jcccnc.org.

To purchase tickets, or for more information contact Andrew Sumi at (415) 567-5505 x229 or email asumi@jcccnc.org.
