Registration is Open for the JCCNC Nikkei Open Golf Tournament

San Francisco (May 21, 2015) – Registration is now open for the Japanese Cultural and Community Center of Northern California’s 21st Annual Nikkei Open Golf Tournament, which will be held on Monday, July 13, 2015 at the Peninsula Golf and Country Club at 701 Madera Drive in San Mateo.

Entry fee is $250 for individuals, $1,000 for foursomes, and includes one round of scramble play, cart, tee prize, Hole-in-One, and Closest-to-the-Pin prizes on all par 3, lunch and dinner. Registration will open at 9:00 a.m., shotgun start at 11:00 a.m., followed by cocktails at 4:00 p.m. and an awards dinner at 5:00 p.m. Prizes will be awarded for the top foursome. Special prizes will also be awarded to winners of the Hole-in-One and Closest-to-the-Pin contests.

The evening program will be emceed by Ryan Kimura with Hawaiian music provided by Don Sadler and JCCNC’s ukulele class. There will also be a raffle drawing at the end of the night. Raffle tickets may be purchased by non-Nikkei Open participants and winners need not be present during the tournament or dinner. Dinner-only tickets will also be available for those who wish to attend the evening program only.

Proceeds from the Nikkei Open Golf Tournament will support the JCCNC, helping to give life to their programs, which allows them to continue to build a thriving resource that has truly been the cornerstone of their community.

For more information about registration, the raffle, or sponsorship opportunities, contact Aya Ino, Director of Development and Communications, at (415) 567-5505 or email development@jcccnc.org.
