‘Asian Americans on Broadway’ to Honor ‘Journey to Tanforan,’ Dorothea Lange

“We are so pleased to have Director Alan Muraoka, Christine Toy Johnson and Hazel Anne Raymundo return to San Francisco with Telly Leung, Deborah Lew and Jose Llana sharing new songs and stories about their triumphant journeys to Broadway. We are especially looking forward to the special tribute numbers for photographer Dorothea Lange and the Journey to Tanforan event,” stated Paul Osaki, JCCCNC Executive Director.

<<Photographer Dorothea Lange captured this image of people lining up in front of the Kinmon Gakuen Japanese Language School at 2031 Bush Street in San Francisco to register for evacuation on April 25, 1942.

On June 2, 2007, over 1,000 people attended “Journey to Tanforan” at The Shops at Tanforan in San Bruno — the former site of the Tanforan Assembly Center. The program was emceed by Jan Yanehiro with speakers Assembly Member Gene Mullin, San Bruno Mayor Larry Franzella, former internees Charles “Wacky” Sumimoto and Patrick Hayashi, former associate president of the University of California system. The Grateful Crane Ensemble performed a dramatization of internees arriving at Tanforan and former San Francisco Poet Laureate Janice Mirikitani read a poem titled “Desert Flowers in Memory” in honor of her parents and all who suffered through the internment experience. The program ended with the Ensemble singing a rendition of “Tanforan” and the tolling of a bell to remember all who were incarcerated.

Through her photography of the evacuation of thousands of Japanese Americans from throughout the San Francisco Bay Area 65 years ago, Dorothea Lange not only helped document an epic event in America’s history, but she also helped capture the sense of loss and struggle of an entire community. Her photos helped to educate our country of the perils of the internment at the Tanforan Assembly Center as families were herded into horse stalls to live for six months prior to being relocated to the deserts of Topaz, Utah and other concentration camps throughout the U.S. where they would live out their lives for another three years.

Lange’s photographs of the experience gave our community a voice when we had none and also ensured that our country would never forget the tragedy of one of the worst civil liberty violations in United States history.

“We are so pleased to have Director Alan Muraoka, Christine Toy Johnson and Hazel Anne Raymundo return to San Francisco with Telly Leung, Deborah Lew and Jose Llana sharing new songs and stories about their triumphant journeys to Broadway. We are especially looking forward to the special tribute numbers for photographer Dorothea Lange and the Journey to Tanforan event,” stated Paul Osaki, JCCCNC Executive Director.

The Future of Our Japantowns

As many of you are aware, all three historic Japantowns remaining in California have had huge portions of land and commercial properties purchased by major, multi-billion dollar international developers. Many people, and rightly so, are asking the question, “What for?”

The answer is simply, they hope that their investment will eventually unveil millions of dollars for them in the future.

One way for this to happen is for them to tear down the existing structures and rebuild the properties for greater financial opportunities. Basically, they will need to create new and improved space where they will be able to charge more per square foot than they can currently assess. This can take form in bigger and enhanced retail/commercial space, market rate condominiums and by seeking higher-end commercial chain stores.

Great change in our Japantowns is inevitable. I doubt that the developers will just sit on the properties and use our Japantowns as land banks. However, if this is the case, it is the worst-case scenario because land banking traditionally involves very little capital investment or improvements. Developers usually feel that the property is worthless and it is the land that has the only real value. In many situations like this the properties soon become rundown and vacant to the point that it becomes blighted, which invites a future teardown and re-use of the property. In the case of our Japantowns, this means re-using the property for purposes other than a Japantown. So, let’s hope that this is not the case.

Let’s hope that what these new landowners and developers bring to our communities is the millions of dollars necessary to revitalize our Japantowns into thriving and economically rich communities and Japantowns that we can all be proud of.

For this to happen, our communities will have to become more engaged than ever with the planning and development of our Japantown properties. In San Francisco, this means becoming actively involved in our Japantown Better Neighborhood planning process. If you care at all about our Japantown -- get involved, come to meetings and speak your mind! If you believe that our community, its history and culture should be shared and continue for generations to come, get others involved, bring your friends and families to the meetings and make sure that our communities’ voices are heard.

A new post-redevelopment chapter in our Japantown community’s history is being written as we speak. It’s vital that we all become contributing authors, writers, editors and readers of this new chapter. It is up to us to develop our future now.

Certainly today, others with no past or history of our Japantowns feel that our communities are worth millions of dollars and have great potential in the future.

Let’s hope we all do as well.

Paul Osaki
Executive Director

Mission Statement

The JCCNC is a non-profit organization which strives to meet the evolving needs of the Japanese American community by offering programs, affordable services and administrative support and facilities for other local service organizations. The JCCNC also provides educational, cultural and recreational programs that meet and address the interests and concerns of the community. Our goals remain rooted in preserving the Japanese American cultural and historical heritage as well as fostering the foundation for future generations of Japanese Americans.
Help the JCCCNC ‘Go Green!’

The Japanese Cultural and Community Center of Northern California (JCCCNC) has always been about preserving our history, culture, heritage and community. But today, we need to look at the bigger picture of preserving our planet.

Help the JCCCNC “GO GREEN!” Do your part to not only help support the JCCCNC, but also to help us save the environment.

Our annual PG&E bill runs between $36,000 to $40,000 a year. The cost to install solar panels for the JCCCNC, based on our current electrical usage, is about $226,000. If you can help us raise these funds, we will receive over 30 percent of the costs, or $69,971, in rebates from the state and federal government. That means we really only need to raise $157,000 to be completely self-sufficient in our electrical use and free of our current electric bills over the years, you can help make an impact in saving our planet.

Help us save our rising electric bills. Help us save our environment. Help us GO GREEN!!

If you would like more information about our GO GREEN initiative or how you can help, please contact us at (415) 567-5505.

Get Involved in Creating a ‘Better Neighborhood’

The Japantown Better Neighborhood Plan kicked off on March 28 at the JCCCNC with a community meeting attended by more than 200 people.

This meeting marked the start of a year-long neighborhood planning process, led by the San Francisco Planning Department, aimed at securing the future of Japantown. The planning process will address new development in Japantown, economic improvements, better streets and open spaces and connections across Geary to the Fillmore, among other topics.

As part of Phase One of the project, “Understanding Japantown,” a series of focus groups were held in July and August to get a better sense of the Japantown community’s priorities. Focus groups were targeted toward residents and homeowner association representatives, businesses, seniors and service providers and cultural organizations, among others.

Sometime this month (no specific information has been announced at the time of printing), a second community workshop will be held to once again present ideas and gain feedback.

October through January will mark Phase Two of the project, “Planning Analysis,” with the third community meeting scheduled for November, at which findings will be presented, and the fourth for January, where strategies will be presented.

Finally, Phase Three, “Recommendations and Plan Development” will take place between February and June, with the fifth and final community meeting scheduled for March.

The planning effort will produce a Specific Area Plan, a vision for the future of the community and a program to implement the vision. New zoning, planning codes and other regulations, a public benefits and public improvements program will all compose the plan.

As part of the plan, a 30-member Steering Committee composed of individuals representing a variety of Japantown entities includes JCCCNC Executive Director Paul Osaki and Director of Development Teresa Ono.

The JCCCNC is proud to have hosted two summer interns, Jeffrey Chu and Colleen Oinuma, as a part of the 2007 Nikkei Community Internship Program. This statewide, eight-week internship, sponsored by the California Japanese American Community Leadership Council (CJACL), provides an opportunity for Japanese American youth to gain exposure to the Nikkei Community by placing them in a non-profit community organization (for four days a week) and having the interns meet community leaders (on the fifth day of each work week.) The internship provides a fun and inspiring atmosphere for each intern to have a unique and valuable experience.

Jeffrey Chu, originally from San Francisco, is a mechanical engineering major at the University of California, Berkeley and interned under the Programs Department. A former Eagle Scout for Boy Scout Troop 58 of Konko Church and a Shinzen alumnus, working on the JCCCNC’s various events and programs is familiar territory. Jeffrey helps coach a now 5th grade basketball team for the San Francisco Enchantees. His hobbies include playing and watching sports especially basketball, baseball and football in addition to buying shoes. Reflecting on his experience, Jeffrey said, “Everything I did this summer had meaning for me and I wouldn’t have changed any of it...I have a lot of reasons why I will stay involved. Most important to me is trying to keep the Japanese American community alive for future generations especially with the selling of land both in SF Japantown and Little Tokyo. The future of our Japantowns is in question and strengthening the community will be important to keeping everything we have now, alive.”

Colleen Oinuma, a senior at UC Berkeley, is majoring in Environmental Science and hopes to work in the non-profit sector. Interning under the Development Department gave her insight into the inner workings of how to expand a thriving organization. “I think, above all, the most meaningful outcome of participating in the NCI program are the personal relationships that I made over the summer. I felt privileged to be able to work at the JCCCNC with such a dedicated and fun staff. I also value the conversations with all the community members and community leaders I met,” said Colleen.

As president of the UC Berkeley Nikkei Student Union, she works closely with the Japanese American community on campus and in the greater Bay Area. “I want to expand our student community on campus and expose more JA peers to the greater SF Bay Area JA community, since many people come from backgrounds where they weren’t active in the JA community.”

When asked what she learned this summer, Colleen jokingly replied, “MAIL MERGE. =D.”

An avid gardener and cook, she is always looking for people to taste her recipes and help her weed.

JCCCNC’s Nikkei Youth Sports Scholarships

The JCCCNC in partnership with the Ronald McDonald House Charities/Asian Students Increasing Achievement (RMHC/ASIA) awarded two graduating high school students the Nikkei Youth Sports Scholarship (NYSS). This scholarship is an avenue whereby the JCCCNC can help develop future leaders of our community by providing financial aid for students who will attend a university. Scholarship recipients were selected based on their community involvement, leadership development, personal qualities and strengths, and financial need. The two recipients of the 2007 NYSS are as follows:

KERRY HISAYE INOKUCHI graduated from Burlingame High School and is now attending the University of California at San Diego seeking a degree in business or communications. Kerry was actively involved in her high school’s band and Student Impact Team (a student leadership group which addresses topics such as sexual harassment and transition from 8th grade to high school). Other activities include San Mateo JYO basketball, traditional Japanese dance with the San Mateo Buddhist Temple. Gold Award recipient with the Girl Scouts and historian, publicist and acting secretary for Young Buddhists of America.

Kerry is grateful for her experience in the Japanese American community and hopes to give back to it some day. “The Japanese American community is part of my identity and has helped me better understand my heritage. In the future, I want to study in the field of business, more specifically towards the direction of communications. My hope is to use these skills to increase society’s awareness of the Japanese American community and its contributions.” Kerry is the daughter of Mr. Jeffrey and Mrs. Leslie Inokuchi of Burlingame.

HILLARY EMIKO NAKANO graduated from Bishop O’Dowd High School. She plans to pursue a degree in Asian American Studies at University of California at Santa Barbara followed by law school. Hillary was active in school athletics as a member of the basketball and soccer teams. Outside of school, she was a member of a Class I soccer team and Berkeley Sangha Temple’s basketball team. Other activities include heading an outreach program through Asian Community Mental Health and volunteering at JCCCN events such as the Halloween Carnival, CCLPEP “Notice to All” conference and most recently the JCCCN’s 2006 “Love Letters” event.

Hillary possesses a strong sense of community and has aspirations of being one of its future leaders. “Through the J.A. league and especially through Shinzen, I have learned a lot about my heritage. The main thing keeping the J.A. spirit alive is the community.....I hope eventually to become a prominent lawyer for the J.A. community. Keeping the J.A. society flourishing is very important to me, and without the help of the Asian league, I have never been introduced to my future.” Hillary is the daughter of Mr. Gerry Nakano and Ms. Dianne Fukami of Oakland.

On July 27, 2007, over 100 participants (22 players, their families and staff) departed San Francisco International Airport for Osaka on Japan Airlines as participants of the 2007 Shinzen USA Nikkei Youth Goodwill Program. With visits to Hiroshima and homestays in both Osaka and Kobe, this group was in for an experience they won’t soon forget.

On July 30, the group traveled to Hiroshima, making a poignant visit to the Hiroshima Peace Memorial Museum to learn about the August 6, 1945 tragedy and the stories of some of the survivors. The youth then walked to the Cenotaph to pay their respects to the A-bomb victims before presenting their 1,000 cranes at the Sadako Peace Monument.

After returning to Osaka, the youth expended some energy on the court, with games against the Osaka YMCA and a Friendship Tournament composed of teams mixing players from both countries.

On August 2, in celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the San Francisco-Osaka Sister City Relationship, the players and coaches were invited to Osaka City Hall to meet with the honorable Mayor Junichi Seki. Kelly Lem presented Mayor Seki with a letter from Mayor Gavin Newsom and gave her speech in Japanese, thanking the Mayor for his invitation. Keith Inokuchi shared his thoughts on returning to Osaka and pledged to continue his Shinzen spirit by creating new friendships. The Mayor was pleased to receive a Major League Baseball All-Star jacket, which he said he would wear when he visits San Francisco in September. He then presented them all with a beautiful medallion embossed with three symbols: Osaka City Hall, the "miotsukushi," official emblem of the City of Osaka and Osaka Castle.

In Kobe, the participants will most remember time spent at the Nagata Kodomo Home orphanage. The Shinzen youth shared their hip hop dance routine, created a peace art project together with the orphans and had lunch together before sadly partying ways.

The Shinzen youth kept journals during their trip and below are a few excerpts:

“The most memorable experience was with my Osaka homestay. From going to the public bathhouse to riding bikes and doing fireworks, I realized that friendships could be made even though speaking the language is a challenge. Fun is fun in any language.” - Drew Mametsuka

Jared Wong, whose family originated in Hiroshima, was overwhelmed by the visit to the city, stating that, “Going to the Hiroshima Peace Museum and the Sadako Memorial Statue was life-changing...Those two monuments taught me that the relationships we were building with the Japanese kids were actually really important as we grow up and take more control of our surroundings.”

These memorable moments would not be possible without the support of many other organizations, donors and countless volunteers who have continued to give to this Program over the years. The 2007 Shinzen Program would like to especially thank the following for their continued contributions and generosity: Consulate General of Japan in San Francisco, The Henri and Tomoye Takahashi Charitable Foundation, Japan Airlines, Mayor Gavin Newsom and Mr. Mark Chandler of the City and County of San Francisco, Golden Gate Optimist Club, Ralph Greene and Margie Yemoto, Yoshihiro Ito and Aito, Mr. Mits and Mrs. Sadame Kojimoto, NFL Alumni Association, Nikkei Lions Club and the San Francisco Drakes Organization.
Over 1,000 Join JCCCNCC on a ‘Journey to Tanforan’

On June 2, 2007, over 1,000 people gathered to commemorate the 65th anniversary of the opening of the Tanforan Assembly Center. At The Shops at Tanforan in San Bruno — which stands on the former assembly center site — attendees remembered February 1942, when nearly 8,000 San Francisco Bay Area Japanese Americans were evacuated to the Tanforan Racetrack — the first step in a several years-long revocation of their civil rights.

>> Los Angeles-based theatre company The Grateful Crane Ensemble and volunteers reenacted the arrival at Tanforan Assembly Center.

^^ Beginning at 10 a.m., over 1,000 attendees braved the chilly morning in the front parking lot of The Shops at Tanforan, the former site of the Tanforan Assembly Center.

>> Following the ceremony, a reunion luncheon at the JCCCNCC drew over 400 attendees, many of whom were former internees, along with their family and friends. The Grateful Crane Ensemble entertained with a medley of songs. Mrs. Tomoye Takahashi (91) and Mr. Fred Hoshiyama (90+) spoke, as well as Mr. Patrick Hayashi. Bento lunches were from Takahashi Market in San Mateo.

Ten Ways To Support JCCCNC!

Any amount and type of giving makes a difference – it’s what keeps JCCCNC energized and active. Here are ten ways to support our efforts.

1. Become a Member. Your membership provides support to the JCCCNC to carry out its educational, cultural, recreational and social programs. Be a part of the Center where future generations will learn about our community, culture and traditions. Join us today.

2. Gifts in memory or in honor of. Giving on behalf of someone special or someone who has passed on is a heartfelt way to pay tribute to unique people in our lives. If you would like to donate a gift on behalf of someone you know, please send us your donation and contact information and we will send out a personal thank you to the family or individual letting them know of your gift to the JCCCNC.

3. Planned Giving. You can bequest cash, property and estate gifts to the JCCCNC and preserve your estate, your family’s valuable assets, as well as provide yourself with significant income and tax benefits. This is a significant way for you to help maintain the legacy of the Nikkei community.

4. Gifts of Stock. Your stock contributions can provide the JCCCNC with long term benefits and can benefit you by providing significant breaks on capital gains taxes.

5. Sponsorships. Corporations or individuals can sponsor a JCCCNC special event or program. Donated products, subsidized venue rates or services are all needed in order to produce our annual events. Sponsors receive extensive visibility at our events.

6. Corporate Fund Matching Programs. Did you know that most corporations offer to match their employees’ donations to non-profit organizations? Consult your human resources department to find out how to increase your individual donation (often 100% match) through your employer’s fund matching programs.

7. Volunteering. Give us your valuable time and assist us with special events, programs and administrative duties. Examples of volunteer work are teaching a class or assisting with organizing our annual community events. University students may also be eligible for course credit for completing community service at the JCCCNC.

8. Individual Donations. We’ve made it easy for you to give to the JCCCNC. Give safely and securely online at www.jcccnc.org. Or if you prefer, drop a check to us, or call us if you would like to set up recurring payments with your credit card.

9. Join eScrip. eScrip is an organization that benefits us by crediting you for shopping at your favorite stores and donating percentages of your spending to the JCCCNC. Log on to www.escrip.com and register to give today.

10. Gifts In Kind. Donate items which you would otherwise give or throw away. The JCCCNC will either utilize the item or will sell/give to other parties.
